DESCRIPTION

Located in the heart of Ravels, just a stone's throw from the village centre, you will find this house to refresh on a nice plot.

The driveway is beautifully paved and the property offers pleasant living spaces and features a spacious layout with plenty of bedrooms, perfect for a family or someone looking for some extra space. There is an inviting covered terrace and a handy garage, in addition to a double carport for extra parking.

The property also features a large multi-purpose hall, which is ideal for a variety of uses. Behind the house is a large garden to unleash green fingers and creativity. The hall offers possibilities for both a small independent business or a creative hobby room. This property has exceptional potential.
