DESCRIPTION

Welcome to Brulen 30 in Arendonk

As you step inside, you enter a spacious entrance hall—perfect for neatly storing coats, shoes, and everyday clutter. To the left, you'll find the smallest room in the house, the toilet, because even that deserves a place of honor. As you walk further down the hallway, you reach the practical laundry and storage room. This generous space easily accommodates bicycles, while the washing machine, boiler, and electrical cabinet are discreetly tucked away out of sight.

MOVING TO THE LIVING AREA

The absolute eye-catcher of this home is the spacious open living area with an impressive ceiling height of no less than six meters—literally and figuratively a highlight! The large aluminum sliding doors allow natural light to flood in, while the double-insulated glass contributes to excellent energy efficiency. The industrial design gives the space a modern and sleek appearance.

THE UPPER FLOOR

As you ascend the staircase, you arrive on the landing. There are four bedrooms, one of which offers a stunning view of the canal and the meadows beyond—lush greenery and a breathtaking panorama. This room is currently set up as an office. Additionally, privacy screens allow you to enjoy the view undisturbed.

The master bedroom has a spacious walk-in closet is cleverly separated from the sleeping area. There are also two generously sized children's bedrooms that provide a sense of openness.

The bathroom is stylishly finished, featuring both a bathtub and a walk-in shower, along with a double sink. The night toilet is separately located in the sleeping area.

OUTDOOR SPACE

The spacious rear terrace includes a staircase leading into the garden. The garden is fully enclosed, mature, and offers complete privacy.
